

LOCAL MATTERS.

Ladies' Coats. Big sale of ladies' coats now on at Conway's. Almost a Ton. Of choice mixed candy for sale at Miller's Grocery at 3 lbs. for 25c.

At A. T. Wilson's. We are giving special bargains in Boys' Overcoats. As we intend to clear out this line entirely we are prepared to sacrifice our profits.

Christmas Beef. G. & G. Finlay have bought a number of head of cattle for Christmas trade from Mr. John Miller, Elphin. These cattle were fed by Mr. Miller.

Still Improving. Senator Frost is steadily improving in health. He is able to go about the house now and as soon as the weather moderates hopes to come out.

Gets Four Months. The man named Coulter, who was charged with firing a pistol at one Andrews in Pakat hui To snaph, appeared before his Honor Judge Benker, and was sentenced to four months in Central prison.

Reporters Here. H. M. Passmore of the Toronto Telegram, F. McDowall, Toronto News and Fred James Ottawa Journal were in Perth to attend execution of Woodmark.

Sale of Cups and Saucers. Our annual sale of cups and saucers now going on—single or by the dozen—an unprecedented sale. There is nothing more appreciated, as a Xmas gift, than a few cups and saucers.

Knocked off Bridge. Mr. Wm. Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Neil, of Arnprior, received injuries that will keep him under a doctor's care for some time. He was engaged at repair work on the C. P. R. bridge at Carleton Place, when a plank fell, landing on his head and throwing him off into the ice cold water below.

Best Time for Elections. There isn't room in December for both the Christmas shopping and the municipal pot boiling. Result is that the latter gets crowded into the fog end of the month, and anybody that wants to run stands a noble chance of scamping into municipal office.
