Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McFarlane, Lanark, have moved to their cottage here for the summer months.

Coules-Yack

A pretty June wedding of much interest took place in St. John's Church in Perth, on Wednesday, June 22nd, when Mary Frances, younger daughter of Mrs. Matilda Yack of Balderson, and the late Mr. Gustave Yack, was united in marriage to Mr. Michael J. Coules, of Perth, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John J. Coules, of Renfrew.

The bride

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Ernest R. A. Hughes, wore a beautiful floor-length gown of white silk lace over taffeta, on Princess lines, with a Victorian collar, and her white hat was a small off the face crepe turban with a veil to the shoulder, white shoes and accessories to match.

The bridesmaid

The bridesmaid was the bride's cousin, Miss Eileen Noonan, Smiths Falls, who wore a floor-length gown of yellow silk net over taffeta, with a small white hat and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Coules

Mr. and Mrs. Coules left on the afternoon train for Ottawa, Montreal and Quebec City, the bride wearing a pale blue silk crepe dress, white all wool coat and matching white accessories.

Out-of-town guests

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. F. Kasabowski and son, Mr. and Mrs. John Keefe of Renfrew and Mrs. John Bagler, of Espanville.

Notables To Attend Formal Opening Of Bridge

Announcement was made at a meeting of the Marine Committee appointed in connection with the 1933 Islands Bridge opening, that the Governor-General, Lord Tweedsmuir, had accepted an invitation to attend the official opening.

tacted as well as individual boat owners. In order to have U. S. navy vessels visit Canadian waters it was arranged for the Kingston Yacht Club to issue the formal invitation through the department at Ottawa having jurisdiction.

By publicizing the parade of boats, the island region as well as the international bridge will receive valuable advertising amongst a class of people having the means to visit this area.

Governor Lehman of New York State has accepted an invitation to attend the opening on August 18 of the new Thousand Islands International Bridge.

A delegation composed of Vice-Chairman Frank J. Martin of the Thousand Islands Bridge Authority, State Senator Perley A. Pitouher and Assemblyman Russell Wright presented him with the formal invitation, and the Governor said "yes" then and there.

President Roosevelt has conditionally accepted a similar invitation, and Prime Minister Mackenzie King has made full acceptance. Other leading officials of the Federal and Canadian governments, Province of Ontario and New York State will dedicate the new $3,000,000 bridge system and celebrating a century of peace and goodwill between the U. S. and Canada.
