Snow Road news

By Hilda Geddes
The crewl embroidery class was held at the home of Hilda Geddes' January 7. The attendance was not as large as usual due, no doubt, to the terrifically cold weather we have been having this winter. The lowest temperature heard of so far was 54 degrees below zero (F) at Geo. Robinson's.

Both Alex and Fred Trombley have been in hospital in Perth for lengthy sessions. Fred has been released and is convalescing at the home of his daughter, Mary Cooper, in Perth. We hear that Alex is improving.

Evelyn Gemmill spent a few days of last week baby-sitting her grandchildren in Perth.

A very large number from here attended the wake of Lindsay Duncan of Dalhousie Lake, at Young's Funeral Parlors, Lanark, Friday, January 9. Burial was in Crawford's Cemetery on Saturday afternoon.

Brian, Diane and Lance Parsons of C.F.B. Petawawa visited last week with Dian's parents, Gerry and Phyllis Saylor.

Eight members of Portia Rebekah Lodge motored to Lanark Thursday evening, January 8 where they were the guests of Lady Clyde Rebekah Lodge. The high-light of the evening was the official visit of the Assembly Warden, Bernice Hall, representing the Rebekah of Ontario. She was presented with a lovely tray by Hilda Geddes, P.D.D.P. on behalf of both lodges. Lady Clyde Lodge opened the meeting and conducted the business session, and Portia closed it, assisted by Lady Clyde. A delicious lunch provided by both lodges brought this very enjoyable meeting to a close. In spite of the cold weather, all cars started promptly, and everyone returned home safely.

There have been more car accidents throughout this area this winter than several winters combined. The roads appear to be slippery than usual. Two of the unfortunate ones were Elmer Gemmill and Olive Allen.

A few from here attended the Old Time Fiddlers in Perth Friday night.

Fourteen members and visitors of the Snow Road Women's Institute met at the home of Hilda Geddes the evening of January 13. The President, Ethel Ferguson, conducted the meeting, assisted by the secretary, Iris Stewart. The R.R. Call, "Where have you shopped at a Roadside stand, and what did you buy?" proved very interesting and took us all the way from Kaladar, to Northern Ontario, British Columbia; Florida, etc. Elsie Trombley, convenor of Agriculture and Canadian Industries, gave an excellent paper on this subject. Draws were won by Erma Lett and Isabel Hill. The high-light of the evening was the birthday cake with candles (not the correct number) provided by Margaret Millar in honour of her mother's 90th birthday. Mrs. Lett's birthday was the following day, January 14, and everyone wished her well. Erma is our oldest member and has given many years of service to our branch. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

David Stewart and his two children, Adam and Megan, of Ottawa spent the weekend with his parents, Archie and Iris Stewart, while Mrs. Stewart was visiting a friend in Montreal.

Henry Bova has returned to his cottage on the Mississippi River, having spent the holiday season in Ottawa.

Christmas and New Year's visitors at Ken Millars' included Ellis and Barbara Millar of Larder Lake, Jim of Portland, Mike Stephenson of Hamilton, Tom and family, and John and Nancy of Ottawa.

The New Year's Eve party held at the Snowmobile Club was attended by approximately sixty members and their families. The $10.00 voucher from Balderson Cheese Factory was won by Ellis Millar of Larder Lake and the Red Sock Surprise was won by Angela Kirkham of Elphin. After midnight, a delicious pot luck supper was enjoyed by all.

Margaret Millar received her annual Christmas letter from Louis and Bonnie Weiss whom she visited in Los Angeles a few years ago. They are now living in Moapa, Nevada, 42 miles from Las Vegas. Tammy was married two years ago.

The Happy Gang Senior Citizens' group held a very enjoyable party at their regular meeting Wednesday evening, January 14. They had as their guests a goodly number of The Golden Friendship Club of Plevna and Omphah. Euchre and "500" were enjoyed, the winners at Euchre being - Isabel Hill with the ladies' high; Elsie Trombley the ladies' low; Harry Trombley the men's high, and Ludwig Mizey the men's low. The door prize was won by Mr. Maitland Jackson, United Church Minister from Plevna. Lunch was served at the close of the festivities.

MISSISSIPPI
Holiday and recent visitors with Lila Steele and family were: Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Verbrugge and family of Simcoe, Adele Benedict, Joe Steele and sons Barry and Paul, and Edwin Steele all of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winterburn and daughter Dana of Madoc; Shane Winterburn and Glenn Downey of Belleville, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cooper and grandson Derrick Delgrosse of Ottawa, and Carla Ostertag of Cold Water, Ont.

We are glad to see Lila Steele flying around again after the tumble she took a few weeks ago.
