

Edith Weedmark passes at 80

A life-long resident of the Township of Oxford-on-Rideau, Mrs. Edith Elsie Weedmark, age 80 of Kemptville, R.R.5, died in hospital on Thursday, January 10, 1980.

She was a daughter of the late George Crawford and his wife Annie Dangerfield.

At Kemptville on August 5, 1936, she married Melvin Weedmark. Mrs. Weedmark and her husband farmed all their married life at Kemptville R.R.5. She was an active member of St. John's United Church.

She was predeceased by one son Winston in April 1971 and her husband Melvin in March 1975.

Mrs. Weedmark is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lila Williams of Kemptville R.R.3, and several nieces and nephews.

The body rested at the Rolston Funeral Home Kemptville, where the funeral service was conducted in the Chapel on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. Reverend G. Joyce officiated. Spring interment will be in Oxford Mills Union Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Hillais Suddaby, Lloyd Streight, Hilton Buckingham, Douglas Dennison, Clarence Coons and Keith Angus.