

Mrs. Hiram Weedmark received word Friday of the death of her sister's husband, Hamilton Donnelly, at Salmon Arm, B.C., in his 81st year.

The Late Hiram Weedmark

The funeral of the late Hiram Weedmark was held Thursday afternoon from the home to St. Andrew's United church, Rev. H. S. Cooke conducting the service. The choir sang "Beautiful Garden of Eden". Mr. Weedmark died suddenly Monday night. A son of the late Frederick and Mary Weedmark, he was born 79 years ago at Burritts Rapids and came to Beachburg 51 years ago. He married Emma Grawborter 52 years ago in February. He was a highly respected resident of this district, a member of Enterprise Lodge, A.F. & A.M., and of the O.L., also a member of St. Andrew's United church. Surviving are his wife, seven daughters, Mrs. J. Costello and Mrs. George Westbork, Hamilton; Mrs. George Eddington, Chicago; Mrs. Peter Cogenhope, Montreal; Mrs. A. H. Counter, Regina; Mrs. Osborne Lauher, Smiths Falls, and Mrs. Clarence Henry, Beachburg; one son Willard Weedmark, Ottawa; one sister Mrs. Ida Code, Smiths Falls, and two brothers, Mark Weedmark, Vancouver, and George Weedmark, Smiths Falls, also five grandchildren. Pall bearers were Messrs. John Wright, Henry Young, Thomas Eady, Harry Condie, Donald Connelly and Robert Cassidy. Members of Enterprise Lodge carried flowers. Interment was made in Beachburg United cemetery. Friends from a distance attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. George Eddington, Chicago; Mr. Willard Weedmark, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Cogenhope, Montreal; Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Lauher and family and Mr. Clarence Henry, Smiths Falls; Mrs. Reg Weedmark, Burritts Rapids; Mr. George Weedmark, jr., Smiths Falls; Mr. Arnold Weedmark and Mrs. Ross Gordon, Carp; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Weedmark and Mrs. Georgina Gordon, Carleton Place, and Mr. Elmer Weedmark, Ottawa.